

Retired Employees

RECO SA

City of San Antonio

Welcome to the world of...Retirement...Relaxation...& Recreation!!

Serving those who have retired from dedicated public service.

You're retired...now what?

Congratulations on your retirement from City service. Retirement is a major milestone in one's life, and being able to retire from the public sector is a huge accomplishment.

As you enter this new and fulfilling segment of your life, we hope you will continue your friendships with fellow City employees. RECOSA can help you keep informed of retiree benefit issues and stay in touch with fellow retirees.

Who is RECOSA?

RECOSA is a non-profit organization that provides timely, relevant information to retirees regarding critical issues such as TMRS and health benefits. It is an all-volunteer organization that serves those who have retired from dedicated public service. RECOSA received tax exempt 501 (c) (3) status from the Internal Revenue Service on June 22, 2012, and contributions to RECOSA are tax-deductible.

What you need to know...

The RECOSA Board meets regularly with City management and staff to stay informed of developing issues and new provisions, and communicates retiree interests and concerns to City policymakers.

RECOSA maintains a website at www.recosa.org where members can view recent benefit issues and concerns and access a calendar of events.

RECOSA is working with the City to recognize the long and faithful service and dedication of employees. RECOSA strives to ensure that TMRS and health benefits are not diminished and that affordable options are available to retirees.

Becoming a member of RECOSA

Becoming a member of an organization that shares your concerns and is committed to being a spokesperson for retirees makes good sense. There is currently NO annual fee, and by joining, you get e-mails from RECOSA, and RECOSA is encouraging the City to periodically mail out postcard reminders concerning news and upcoming events. In the future, we'd like to add social activities for our members, and we are always looking for volunteers to help with projects. Donations are gratefully accepted at the address below. Please join us in making you retirement a success!

Membership is our strength!
